FEATURED RELEASE

Ebola - Search for a Cure

Horizon meets the scientists and doctors from all around the world looking for the cure and hears first-hand accounts of what it's actually like to catch - and survive - this terrible disease

NEW PROGRAMMING

Inside the Dark Web

Is a secret online space that allows users complete anonymity. As online surveillance increases, this virtual world has grown in popularity. For some it is a place where criminals can operate. For others, it is a haven, free from the government control and censorship that threatens the regular web.

Sex and the West

This fascinating series explores how Christianity's complex, explosive and often divisive ideas about sex and gender has its roots in an extraordinary story that began 2,000 years ago. Sex and the West seek to add historical context and knowledge to what is an increasingly fractured but relevant debate.

How China Fooled the World

China is the second largest economy in the world and for the last 30 years its economy has been growing at an astonishing rate. China's economic miracle has wowed the world, with spending and investment on a scale never seen before in history. But could this mighty economic giant actually be in serious trouble?

Real History of Science Fiction

Some of science fiction's greatest creative pioneers tell the story of sci-fi in this stunning definitive series spanning all its forms, from time travel to artificial intelligence, space exploration and alien encounters

Every Breath We Take - Understanding Our Atmosphere

The air around us is not just empty space; it is an integral part of the chemistry of life. This remarkable film reveals that how we came to realise this simple concept is a story that spans the entire history of science

Women of World War One

This fascinating programme is filled with examples of women from all walks of life, every class and every corner of Britain, and their contributions to the war effort – in the factories, the banks, pulpits and even on football pitches.
